The NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions issued a decision dated March 6, 2015, (the "Decision") in which the Committee found Syracuse University responsible for certain violations of NCAA legislation. The specific infractions, largely arising out of conduct from the past decade that the University voluntarily self-reported to the NCAA, regard: (a) impermissible extra benefits in the form of money, food, or transportation provided to certain student-athletes on the Men's Basketball, Women's Basketball, and Football teams by a non-employee representative of the University's athletics interest; (b) unethical conduct committed by three football student-athletes and a part-time tutor regarding the student-athletes' involvement in an internship for academic credit at the part-time tutor's place of full-time employment; (c) the former director of basketball operations and a former receptionist's unethical conduct when they engaged in academic fraud with a former Men's Basketball student-athlete; (d) a former tutor and a former receptionist provision of impermissible academic extra benefits to three former men's basketball student-athletes; (e) although testing and enforcement occurred, the University's failure to follow its written drug testing procedures for student-athletes; (f) Men's basketball staff's provision of more than two complimentary admissions on several occasions; (g) three athletics department staff members failure to report outside income or benefits to the University's chancellor; (h) former student-athletes participation in approximately 12 promotional activities without completing the promotion activity forms, and one former student-athlete fundraising for a charitable organization when the funds actually when to a commercial entity; (i) a former women's basketball student-athlete participation in an organized basketball game outside of intercollegiate competition; (j) two institutional employees provision of impermissible transportation to one former Men's Basketball student-athlete and one former Football student-athlete; (k) the head basketball coach failure to promote an atmosphere of compliance within his program or to monitor the activities of those who reported directly and indirectly to him; and (l) the University's failure to exercise control and monitor the conduct and administration of its athletics programs. In the Decision, the Committee on Infractions imposed a period of five years of probation on the University from March 6, 2015, through March 5, 2020. Additional information regarding the Decision and the penalties it imposed are available upon request.

Athletic Communications – (315) 443-2608

Interview Opportunities

- Postgame: The Syracuse locker room is open following Coach Adrian Autry's postgame press conference in the media room.
- Coach Autry: Outside of postgame interviews and specific media interview days, media should contact Pete Moore in Athletic Communications (315-443-2080) to check on Coach Autry's availability.
- Student-Athletes: Please respect the privacy of the student-athletes and their families and do not contact them by any means, without working through the Athletic Communications Office. Interviews should not be conducted without making the arrangements through Pete Moore, director of athletic communications.

Media Credentials and Scouting Passes

- Individual game requests for working press credentials for media or scouting should be made online via the TicketManager media credential system. Please visit www.SportsSystems.com/SyracuseMensBasketball to apply for credentials. Communication regarding your request will be made via e-mail. Contact the Athletic Communications Office with questions. Please make requests at least one week prior to the game.
- Visiting team media can also apply for credentials online.
- Requests from NBA scouts will be honored as space permits.
- Credentials can be picked up the day of the game at the JMA Wireless Dome's Gate B, 90 minutes prior to tipoff.
- Gameday requests will not be honored.

Photographers

- Syracuse subscribes to the policy suggested by the NCAA Public Relations Committee, in conjunction with the National Press Photographers Association. Photographers must have a game photo credential or Dome photo button. Still photographers will be permitted to shoot on the east side of each basket on the baseline (and are not permitted to stand during game action).

Radio

Broadcast Lines

- Radio lines and one ISDN line are available for visiting radio broadcasts. Credential requests should be made using the online system by linking to:
  www.SportsSystems.com/SyracuseMensBasketball

Services

- Game notes and a digital game program will be available for each contest on www.Cuse.com.
- Wireless internet access is available throughout the JMA Wireless Dome.
- Media will be able to access live stats during the game through a link on www.Cuse.com.

Videographers

- A rotation of local video pool reporters will be established for the home games. Additional stations covering the game can shoot post-game interviews. Videographers will not have seats on press row.

ACC Teleconference

- The 18 ACC head basketball coaches will be featured on eight Monday zoom calls during the 2025-26 season. The season's first teleconference will take place on Monday, January 5, 2026 and continue through Monday, March 2. Each coach will have 10 minutes to make an opening statement and answer questions. There will be a replay of each teleconference on the Conference's internet site theACC.com each Monday afternoon. Coaches that have a Monday night game will not take part.

theACC.com

- The ACC has complete and up-to-date information on its website at www.theacc.com. The site contains current news on all happenings around the ACC, including the 18 men's basketball schools.

2025-26 Preview

Following a season derailed by injuries to two starters, Syracuse reloaded its roster for Coach Adrian Autry's third season at the helm. The upcoming campaign includes the always challenging ACC schedule as well as a trip to the Players Era Men's Championship in Las Vegas in November.

Returners' Restart

Starting guard J.J. Starling and first-string forward Donnie Freeman both missed time in 2024-25 due to injuries. Starling was out of the lineup for seven contests early and returned to lead the team in scoring (17.8 ppg.) and earn All-ACC Honorable Mention. Freeman was impressive for 14 games before an injury ended his rookie campaign. He averaged 13.4 points and 7.9 rebounds. Having the duo back in Orange was the staff's first priority when plans began for 2025-26. Local product Noah Lobdell returns for his second year.

Acquiring Experience

The Orange targeted Division I players with major minutes under their belts when scouring the transfer portal. It was mission accomplished with six transfers representing 16 college seasons, 412 games and 304 starts worth of experience.

The group consisted of sophomore forward Tyler Betsy (Cincinnati), junior guard Naithan George (Georgia Tech), redshirt senior guard Nate Kingz (Oregon State), senior forward William Kyle III (UCLA), redshirt sophomore forward Ibrahim Souare (Georgia Tech) and graduate guard Bryce Zephir (Montana State).

Betsy was a two-time Connecticut Gatorade Player of the Year at St. Thomas before enrolling at Cincinnati. George, a two-year starter with the Yellow Jackets, led the ACC in assist average a year ago (6.5 apg.). Kingz started 31 games and averaged 11.8 points an outing at Oregon State in 2024-25. In Kyle III, the Orange added the 2024 Summit League Defensive Player of the Year from South Dakota State, who spent last winter at UCLA. Souare was a teammate of George's at Georgia Tech and Zephir was a regular with the Bobcats.

Adding Freshness

Syracuse recruited five freshmen in a class ranked 10th in Division I by 247sports.com. The newcomers featured two top-40 players, guard Kiyan Anthony (Long Island Lutheran) and forward Sadiq White Jr. (IMG Academy). Both competed in the Iverson and Jordan Brand Classic games in the spring.

Center Tiefing Diawara (DME Academy at St. John's Northwestern, Wisc.), guard Luke Fennell (Melbourne, Australia) and guard Aaron Womack (Dominican) rounded out the rookies.

First? A successful player and graduate at Syracuse University.

Second? A return to his alma mater as an assistant coach.

Third? The Syracuse men's basketball head coach.

It took more than three steps up the basketball ladder to get Adrian Autry to the place he is in now, but three of the strides were definitely Orange.

Back in 1990, when he first enrolled at Syracuse University, Autry likely didn't even contemplate anything beyond having a great practice with the Orange. A process-oriented person, he focused on the day at hand and then, after completing that, the next day.

Some 33 years later, he was named the next head coach.

Autry In Charge

In his first campaign at the helm, Autry directed the Orange to a 20-12 overall mark, which included an 11-9 ACC record, in his first season at the helm. He joined his mentor, Jim Boeheim, as the only Syracuse cocahes to guide a squad to a 20-win season in his first campaign.

The result marked the Orange's first 20-win regular-season campaign since 2013-14.

Syracuse finished the campaign with 11 ACC wins, the program's best total since 2013-14, its first season in the league.

He was named one of 14 finalists for the 2023-24 Joe B. Hall Award. The honor is presented annually to the top rookie, first-year head coach, in Division I college basketball.

Year two brought new challenges, not the least of which was navigating the loss of two starters to injuries. Autry was also faced with replacing three departing starters from his initial season. Syracuse finished 14-19 with an ACC tournament triumph against Florida State.

As soon as the 2024-25 campaign wrapped up, Autry and his staff aggressively rebuilt the Orange roster. It began with convincing guard J.J. Starling and forward Donnie Freeman to return to Syracuse. Next, Autry enlisted Starling and Freeman to help recruit the transfer portal. The move paid off and six newcomers, including All-ACC Honorable Mention pick Naithan George from Georgia Tech agreed to come aboard. The staff had already earned commitments from five freshmen, who formed a top-10 recruiting class. There is great anticipation for 2025-26.

"This is a new season, new team," Autry noted.

Southern Born, Northern Raised

Autry was born in 1972 in Monroe, North Carolina. At the age of five, he moved with his mother and his sister to New York City. He grew up in the Martin Luther King projects.

Conrad McRae (13), Adrian Autry (15) and Mike Hopkins (33) were teammates for three seasons at Syracuse. Autry (Syracuse) and Hopkins (Washington) have served as Division I head coaches.

Once exposed to basketball, Autry dove right in. He played AAU basketball for Riverside Church, a nationally recognized program.

A Prep Standout

Autry was a three-year starter at St. Nicholas of Tolentine in the Bronx. His squad won the New York City and New York State championships in 1988 and finished ranked first nationally.

In the New York State Federation playoffs, St. Nicholas of Tolentine downed Adlai Stevenson, the Public Schools Athletic League winner, 85-54. Autry had 19 points when Tolentine beat Our Savior Lutheran, 95-69, in the title game.

The Wildcats posted 30-1, 21-8 and 26-4 records during Autry's three seasons for a combined varsity mark of 77-13 (.856). He was a three-time First Team All-New York City selection.

He was a Parade All-American in 1989 and 1990 and a 1990 McDonald's All-American. Autry had eight points and 11 assists to help the East squad win the McDonald's game, 115-104. Autry also played in the Dapper Dan Roundball Classic and was a member of the West squad in the 1990 U.S. Olympic Festival.

Learning The Orange Way

Autry stepped right into the starting lineup as a freshman at Syracuse. The Orange opened the campaign at the Maui Classic. Syracuse defeated Indiana to claim the title, 77-74. Autry was with the first string for 30-of-31 outings and led the team with 164 assists. The Orange were 26-6, won the BIG EAST Conference, were ranked as high as third in the polls and earned an NCAA Tournament berth. Autry was named to the BIG EAST All-Rookie Team.

In 1991-92, he started 28-of-31 games and topped the club in assists (123) and steals (48) while averaging 11.0 points. Syracuse was 22-10, won the BIG EAST Tournament, and was in the NCAA Tournament.

His scoring average jumped to 13.7 in his junior campaign. Autry started all but one game and led the team in assists (161) and steals (58). The Orange were 20-9 and he was named third-team All-BIG EAST.

Autry was a member of the 1993 USA Basketball Under-21 squad that was 8-0 and captured the gold medal in the Young Men World Championship. The team was coached by then George Washington Coach Mike Jarvis, and included Virginia's Cory Alexander and Auburn's Wesley Person.

In 1993-94, Autry was a first-team All-BIG EAST pick and averaged a career-best 16.7 points and 6.1 assists. Syracuse finished the season 23-7 and lost to Missouri in the NCAA Sweet 16, 98-88 in overtime. In that game, Autry scored 31 points in the second half.

One of three players to lead SU in season assists four times, Autry still ranks fifth in career assists (631) and sixth in career steals (217). He is 21st in Syracuse career scoring with 1,538 points.

Acting Professionally

After completing his college career in 1994, Autry was taken in the second round of the 1994 Continental Basketball Association (CBA) Draft by the Shreveport Crawdads.

In 1995, Autry started two years with Besiktas Istanbul in Turkey before returning to the U.S. to play for Westchester in the United States Basketball League (USBL). He then logged two seasons with SSV Ulm in Germany. The team reached the 1998 German Bundesliga Finals. Autry was named 1999 All-German Imports First Team.

MY BEST GAME . . .

February 12, 1994: #14 Syracuse 93, #4 Kentucky 85

Autry: "My senior year. That was a big game for us at that time. I think Kentucky was ranked fourth in the country when they came in. I was locked in from the beginning. I was ready. The crowd sticks out the most. It was loud. It was similar to the noise we had in the Dome when we played Duke for the first time in the ACC."

He was back in the USBL in 1999 with the Long Island Surf.

Autry began a three-year stint in Italy with Sicc Jesi in 1999. He played the next season with PAF Bologna and 2001-02 with Fabriano Basket and Mabo Livorno. During 2000, he played with the Brooklyn Kings (USBL).

He moved to Sluc Nancy in France's pro league in 2002. He then signed with Brandt Hagen (Germany) and later Lokomotiv Novosibirsk (Russia).

Autry played for Verviers-Pepinster in the Belgium League to start 2004-05. He switched to Deichmann Slask Wroclaw and ended his career as a member of the Polish Cup Winners.

From Student To Teacher

After retiring as a player, Autry returned to the United States and began work in real estate. It wasn't long before he was lured back to basketball.

In 2006, Autry began his coaching career as associate head coach at Bishop Ireton Catholic High School (Va.). That spring he became an AAU coach for NOVA United. He led the 14-Under squad and then the 15-Under team.

Autry became an assistant coach at Paul VI High School (Va.) in 2007. In 2008 he led the 17-Under AAU club Team Takeover.

Virginia Tech coach Seth Greenberg offered Autry the post of director of basketball operations in 2008. After the 2009-10 campaign, Autry was moved to assistant coach. The Hokies finished 22-12, and played in the NIT.

Orange Again

He returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach in 2011.

He worked with the Syracuse forwards and in recruiting the next group of Orange stars.

In his first season back, Autry helped develop Kris Joseph, who earned All-America honors and was drafted by the Boston Celtics.

Autry also oversaw the improvement of C.J. Fair, an All-American in 2013-14.

Autry's group in 2012 had Jerami Grant. Grant led the team in rebound average (6.8) as a sophomore and was taken in round two by the 76ers. Grant is now one of the league's top forwards with Portland.

Chris McCullough's only year was cut short by an injury, but he still earned first-round selection by Brooklyn in 2015.

He coached Tyler Lydon into one of the nation's best sixth-men and then a regular in the Orange starting lineup. Lydon was taken in the first round of the 2017 draft by Utah.

In the spring of 2017, Autry was named associate head coach on Coach Jim Boeheim's staff.

Autry was able to guide Oshae Brissett from an inexperienced rookie to a player with a free-agent NBA contract in two years. Brissett earned ACC All-Freshman Team honors in 2017-18 and entered the NBA after his sophomore season. He's currently a member of the Boston Celtics.

Marek Dolezaj, a native of Slovakia, was another one of Autry's successful projects. Dolezaj grew into one of Syracuse's more versatile frontcourt players. He started on the 2020-21 team that reached the NCAA Sweet 16.

In 2021-22, Autry helped Cornell transfer Jimmy Boeheim transition from the Ivy League to the ACC. Boeheim started all 33 games and averaged 13.7 points and 6.2 rebounds. After playing with the Detroit Pistons in the NBA Summer League, Boeheim signed a contract to play professionally in Greece.

MARCH 8, 2023: DAY ONE OF THE AUTRY ERA

CHANCELLOR SYVERUD: "Today the torch is being officially passed. It's being passed from one of the winningest coaches of all time, and from an Upstater who has been incredibly loyal to this program and University through the good times and the bad. It's being passed to another alum who bleeds orange, who played for the Orange, and who has dedicated much of his professional life to the Orange.

JOHN WILDHACK: "Adrian has the vision and the strategy to successfully and boldly lead our program to the future. And our future is bright. Adrian has earned this opportunity and deserves this opportunity."

JIM BOEHEIM: "I've known Adrian Autry since he was 16 years old. He had 30 in New York City against Kenny Anderson, and I said that's a guy we have to get to come to Syracuse. A few years ago, we needed him to come back -- he came back and is a great coach."

ADRIAN AUTRY COMMENTS

THANK YOU, John for that kind introduction. I am truly honored and humbled to stand up here as the next HEAD COACH of Syracuse University Men's Basketball program.

There are so many people I want to acknowledge of course. I know I'll miss someone, so please accept my apologies now. First and foremost, I would like to give thanks to God, for blessing me with the amazing opportunity. I'd like to thank CHANCELLOR KENT SYVERUD, all the trustees, and JOHN WILDHACK for putting trust in me to lead this Syracuse men's basketball team into the future.

I want to thank COACH BOEHEIM. Thirty-three years ago, I arrived at Syracuse University as a young man from Harlem, New York. I'll always say that I was the easiest McDonalds All-American you had to recruit. From day one, Coach took me in under his wing as a player, and most recently, as a coach. And it has been an HONOR to play and coach for you. You and Juli have opened your home and embraced me and my family as your own. There's no doubt that you have created and will leave A LEGACY OF GREATNESS. Your contribution to the Syracuse basketball program, the University, and the city of Syracuse is one to be admired and celebrated. Thank you.

ADRIAN and ANDREA AUTRY

Thank you to the FORMER PLAYERS that are here today, and for all the others who have texted and gave me phone calls.

To GERRY (McNamara), ALLEN (Griffin), PETE (Corasiniti), and the rest of the STAFF, thank you for your friendship, partnership, and support. I'm excited to begin this next chapter with you all.

To our CURRENT STUDENT-ATHLETES, throughout the recruiting process, I know you all have always heard that Syracuse is a family, and we take care of our own. Today is a testament of that.

As I stand up here as a former PLAYER, proud ALUM, and now as your next head coach, I'm EXCITED for the future and what we're going to do TOGETHER.

To the fans that make up ORANGE NATION, the ones that fill up the seats in the LOUD HOUSE, the ones who CHEERED me as a player, the ones that SUPPORT us whether we're winning or losing – representing you makes the Orange. Thank you. Representing the Orange, especially because of you – there's nowhere else in America like the Dome.

I would like to thank Coach Greenberg for giving me my first college coaching job. And to my endless circle of friends, thank you for your support.

Finally, and most importantly, MY FAMILY. My wife, Andrea, I love you. My children, Aliyah, Adrian, Trey and Nina – all who are here today – thank you for your support. For allowing me the freedom to sometimes miss birthdays, anniversaries, and sporting events – all in the name of basketball. You have been with me for every step of the way, you keep me grounded and you support me in so many ways.

When I think about what attracted me and drew me to Syracuse as a player, I think about its HISTORY. The rich TRADITION, and what I refer to as the "ORANGE STANDARD," as set by Coach Boeheim. The Orange Standard is the HISTORY of winning, the history of playing hard and COMPETING for championships.

The history of resilience, DETERMINATION and grit. As I take over this program as the head coach, it is these standards that will guide us into the future.

I am a NEW voice, a new face, with new ideas but the standards that have helped build this program will not change.

So, I thank you all for being here today. I thank everyone who has bled orange for decades, those who are new to the ORANGE FAMILY, and those who will join us in the future. Today is an exciting day, I am going to enjoy this moment with my family, and tomorrow we will GET TO WORK.

Thank you and GO ORANGE!.

JOHN WILDHACK: ". In my time at Syracuse, I've had the pleasure of getting to know Adrian and watch him teach and mentor our young men. And I state with full confidence as Coach Boeheim did that Adrian is very well prepared to lead this program.

ADRIAN AUTRY: "We want to be versatile on both ends of the floor. We want to be aggressive and get up and down. We want to be able to adapt, and for right now that's where we are starting.

JIM BOEHEIM: "He can coach. He's not here as a recruiter or a player – he's here as a coach. And he knows how to coach."

CHANCELLOR SYVERUD: "Head Coach Autry represents the future. His love of the Orange brought him back to Syracuse in 2011, but it is his character and his experience and his talent and his passion for the game that explain why he is our next head coach."

Dan Engelstad joined the Syracuse men's basketball program as an assistant coach in April 2024. He had been the head coach at Mt. St. Mary's (Md.) prior to his appointment with the Orange.

Engelstad jumped right in, working with Syracuse's center group as well as contributing in practice planning, recruiting and game preparation.

Teaching The Game

Engelstad began his coaching career at Mount St. Mary's, serving as an assistant coach for three seasons on the staff of head coach Milan Brown. The 2007-08 squad won the Northeast Conference Championship, the third NEC title in team history. Mount St. Mary's swept Quinnipiac, Robert Morris and Sacred Heart to capture the crown and earn an NCAA Tournament spot.

The Mount defeated Coppin State, 69-60, in the NCAA First Four at Dayton. They lost to number one seed North Carolina in the NCAA First Round.

Mount St. Mary's produced three straight 12-6 Northeast Conference records with Engelstad on staff. The Mount participated in the NEC Tournament each campaign.

A Coaching Crusade

When Milan Brown was hired at Holy Cross, he brought Engelstad along as an assistant coach. Engelstad spent three seasons, from 2010-13, as an assistant coach with the Crusaders. Engelstad was defensive coordinator and had recruiting and scouting responsibilities.

After an initial season that resulted in 8-21 and 7-7 records, Holy Cross jumped to 15-14 overall and 9-5 in the Patriot League in 2011-12. The Crusaders finished the regular season with six consecutive victories.

The program's fortunes slipped in year three and Holy Cross ended up 12-18 and 4-10.

Taking Charge

Englestad was appointed head coach at Southern Vermont College in 2013. He led the Mountaineers to a 104-34 (.754) overall record and a 68-10 (.872) conference mark in his five seasons. He was chosen the New England Collegiate Conference (NECC) Coach of the Year three times and coached Southern Vermont to four NECC Championships.

Englestad guided a conference player of the year, defensive player of the year and rookie of the year in his five seasons. He had six players earn All-NECC recognition.

The Mountaineers started winning the moment Englestad arrived. His first club was 16-10 overall and 10-6 in the NECC. The following season, 2014-15, Southern Vermont forged a 25-4 overall mark that included an unblemished 16-0 conference record. The Mountaineers capped the campaign with the Eastern College Athletic Conference Divisoin III New England Championship, beating Anna Maria (76-69) in the semifinals and Fitchburt State (71-69) in the title tilt.

The results were similar in 2015-16. Southern Vermont was 24-4 overall and 16-0 in the league for the second straight season. Engelstad directed the Mountaineers to the NECC crown with a 74-72 triumph against Becker in the title match. Southern Vermont earned an NCAA berth and just missed advancing, losing to Tufts, 78-76.

The Mountaineers lost two regular-season NECC games in 2016-17 but reached the conference championship pairing for the third straight season.

Engelstad retooled the Mountaineers in 2017-18 and the results included an NECC Championship and an NCAA postseason invitation. Southern Vermont defeated Becker in the conference final, 67-62. The Mountaineers were defeated by 15th-ranked Wesleyan in the NCAA Tournament.

Englestad was inducted into the Southern Vermont College Athletics Hall of Fame in 2019.

A Return To The Mount

The success at Southern Vermont led to Engelstad returning to Emmitsburg, Maryland, this time as the head coach at Mount St. Mary's. He replaced Jamion Christian, who had accepted the head coaching post at George Washington.

In Engelstad's six seasons at the helm, he guided the Mountaineers to a 72-109 overall record.

Following a challenging start at the beginning of 2018-19, Engelstad prodded the Mount into a strong finish with four wins over the final seven contests.

The 2019-20 season was a rebuilding year and it paid dividends in a year later. Mount St. Mary's won the Northeast Conference Tournament by beating Bryant, 73-68, and won an automatic NCAA Tournament spot. The Mount was edged, 60-52, by Texas Southern.

Starting with the NCAA postseason campaign, Engelstad directed Mount St. Mary to nine conference wins in three of four seasons.

An Orange Opening

When long-time Syracuse assistant coach Gerry McNamara was named head coach at Siena, head coach Adrian Autry sought an experienced replacement for the Syracuse staff. He found what he was looking for in Engelstad, who joined the program and took over responsibilities with Syracuse's centers.

Engelstad inherits 7-4 Naheem MacLeod, the tallest player in SU hoop history, and two-year Colorado starter Eddie Lampkin.

Playing Time At St. Mary's

Engelstad was a member of the men's basketball team at St. Mary's (Md.) for four seasons. He was a team captain and finished his Seahawk tenure with 101 games played and as the school's career leader in assists (413).

His top statistical season was his sophomore year, in 2004-05. Engelstad averaged 10.0 points per game and shot .524 from the field.

He graduated from St. Mary's in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in political science.

Whitman High School

Voted "Most Athletic" by the Whitman High School Class of 2003, Engelstad was a three-sport competitor at the scholastic level. He was a member of the football, basketball and baseball squads.

Engelstad is a member of the Whitman High School Athletics Hall of Fame.

The Engelstad Family

Engelstad and his wife, Camille, have three daughters: Laney, Elise and Keira.

Brooklyn Born

A native of Brooklyn, Allen Griffin used basketball to help extricate himself from the challenges of inner-city life.

Raised by his grandmother, Martha Valdez, Griffin developed into a standout scholastic performer for Coach Larry Majors at Paul Robeson High School. He was a team captain and most valuable player as a junior and senior for the Eagles. Griffin helped Robeson to two Brooklyn III Division titles and the 1997 Public School Athletic League (PSAL) Championship. He tallied over 1,000 career points.

From Brooklyn To The BIG EAST

Griffin opted to play college basketball in his home state, accepting the offer of Coach Jim Boeheim at Syracuse. He impacted the roster almost immediately and saw court time in 34-of-35 games as a freshman. The Orange were 26-9 and made the NCAA Tournament.

He with the first string for all 33 contests as a ophomore. Griffin more than tripled his scoring average, from 2.4 to 7.9, and his assist total jumped from 30 to 104. He scored double digits in 14 contests. Syracuse earned an NCAA berth and finished 21-12.

An Orange Retooling

Griffin faced a new challenge as a junior when he was replaced in Syracuse's starting lineup. The change ultimately provided Griffin the chance to prepare to take over the starting point guard spot from Jason Hart the following season.

He played in all 32 contests that season. Griffin had his best showing in the NCAA Tournament against Michigan State, scoring a season-best 14 points. Syracuse completed the campaign with a 26-6 mark.

Griffin's hard work paid off when he re-claimed a starting spot as a senior. He helped guide the Orange to a 25-9 mark and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. He earned United States Basketball Writers of America (USBWA) All-District 2 honors.

Over the course of 34 matchups, Griffin averaged 10.8 points and 6.5 assists per game. The Orange earned an NCAA Tournament spot and were 25-9.

Griffin had 20-point outings in wins versus DePaul and Missouri, and 12 assists against Ohio State, to help Syracuse claim the Great Alaska Shootout title.

He added 20-point efforts at Pittsburgh and Seton Hall. Griffin posted a triple double when Syracuse hosted Pittsburgh -- 14 points, 11 assists, and 10 boards. He remains the most recent Syracuse player to post a triple-double.

Griffin played in 133 games over four seasons at Syracuse. He earned USBWA All-District 2 honors as a senior.

MY BEST GAME . . . .

March 4, 2001: #19 Syracuse 93, St. John's 91 2OT

Griffin: "It was my last regular-season game for Syracuse. The pre-game hype seemed to be on a guard other than me -- St. John's Omar Cook. St. John's had a tough team. The fact it was in Madison Square Garden made it even more important. By the time we had won, I felt I had shown I was the best guard on the floor."

In his final regular-season contest, he tallied a career-high 31 points in a double-overtime win against St. John's.

Unfinished Business

Griffin's next trial was to pursue a playing career at the professional level. It began with a stint for the Brooklyn Kings of the United States Basketball League (USBL). Although he was not tabbed in the June 2001 NBA Draft, he was taken in the fifth round of the NBA Developmental League (NBDL) Draft by Columbus. Griffin did not make the team and ventured overseas to play in Slovenia.

Following one year in Europe, Griffin signed with the Asheville Altitude (NBDL). He did not earn a roster spot and decided to enter the coaching ranks.

You Can Go Home Again

Griffin returned to Syracuse and spent one year as the eighth-grade girl's basketball coach at Christian Brothers Academy. He then joined the SU staff as an administrative assistant.

After two years, he was hired as an assistant coach at St. Francis (N.Y.) by Terrier coach Brian Nash.

Former SU assistant Tim Welsh called and offered Griffin an assistant's post at Providence. A two-year stint featured a trip to the NIT.

Griffin was back on the St. Francis (N.Y.) staff for 2008-09 and 2009-10, and then moved to Hofstra under Coach Mo Cassara. The Pride were 21-12 in his one season.

When Archie Miller was hired at Dayton in 2011, he tabbed Griffin to be on his staff. Success was immediate in the form of a 20-win season and NIT berth for the Flyers. After a 17-14 second campaign under Miller, Dayton took off with four straight NCAA Tournament berths.

An Orange Return

After the departure of Mike Hopkins to take the head coaching post at Washington in March 2017, Boeheim selected Griffin to step in.

Griffin worked with the centers in addition to sharing recruiting and scouting responsibilities with the rest of the staff.

His first project was 7-2 Paschal Chukwu, who developed into a two-year starter. Chukwu led SU in blocked shots for both years.

Griffin also assisted in the development of Bourama Sidibe.

In 2019-20, Sidibe moved into the first five with the Orange. Over the final six games, Sidibe averaged 9.8 points and 11.7 rebounds per outing.

Edwards earned 2022-23 Third Team All-ACC and All-ACC Defensive Team recognitions as a senior. He averaged 14.5 points and 10.3 rebounds per game.

Now in his second year with Syracuse's forwards, Griffin will tutor returning starter Chris Bell along with newcomers Jyare Davis, Petar Mastorovic and highly-touted freshman Donnie Freeman.

Boeheim's Army

Griffin earned a new experience last summer when he was named head coach of Boeheim's Army for The Basketball Tournament (TBT). It put him in the primary decision-maker's role for the squad.

Former George Washington assistant coach Brenden Straughn joined the Syracuse men's basketball program as an assistant coach in the spring of 2023.

Straughn filled the remaining open spot on first-year coach Adrian Autry's Syracuse staff.

In Straughn, Autry was able to add to his crew one of the rising young stars in the coaching profession. Straughn has earned accolades for his diligent recruiting style. His familiarity with the DMV (District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia) area has paid dividends in the Orange roster construction.

He was invited to take part in the 2025 Jay Bilas Coaches Leadership Program, designed for current Division I assistant coaches who aspire to be college head coaches.

Coaching Resume

Straughn started his coaching career at his alma mater, Eleanor Roosevelt High School (Greenbelt, Md.), as an assistant coach. From 2013-16, he helped guide the Mustangs to the 2013 and 2016 Maryland 4A state championships and a trio of Prince George County titles (2013, 2015 and 2016). Eleanor Roosevelt held a record of 123-25 during Straughn's time with the program.

Straughn spent 2013-18 coaching on the AAU circuit. He an assistant for Team Takeover and was promoted to associate head coach in 2016. The New Carrolton, Md., native helped guide the club to the 2015 Peach Jam semifinals, the 2017 Jordan Brand 8 Invitational crown and the 2017 Peach Jam finals.

Loyola Maryland coach Tavaras Hardy hired Straughn as an assistant coach in 2018. The Greyhounds increased their win total from the previous season.

Straughn moved on to Saint Joseph's (2019-22) to join the staff of Coach Billy Lange. In Straughn's time with the Hawks, he was responsible for managing the offense, on-court coaching and player development, opponent scouting, and serving as the recruiting coordinator.

This past season, Straughn was an assistant on Chris Caputo's staff at George Washington. The Colonials posted the program's most season wins (16) and Atlantic 10 Conference victories (10) since 2016-17. George Washington led the Atlantic 10 in scoring offense (76.3 ppg.).

Player Development

While coaching Team Takeover, Straughn helped develop five players who earned McDonald All-America honors and 70 Division I performers. Among the notables were McDonald's All-Americans V.J. King, who played at Louisville, and Maryland performer Jalen Smith. Smith plays for the Indiana Pacers.

In the college ranks, he worked closely with eight student-athletes who earned all-conference recognition, including two first-team all-league selections and four all-rookie team honorees. Straughn mentored a conference scoring champion at all three schools.

Playing At Hood College

Straughn spent his collegiate career at Hood College (2008-12), a Division III program in Frederick, Md. He played for Coach Tom Dickman.

A four-year starter at guard for the Blazers, Straughn served as a captain for three seasons. In his four years he started 78 games while appearing in 94 total contests. At the conclusion of his collegiate career, he was ranked among Hood's Top 10 in scoring and was second in assists and steals.

Straughn started 24-of-25 contests as a freshman. His 103 assists and 44 steals led the team and he finished third in scoring average with a 10.3 mark. Straughn had a career-high 29 points in a matchup with Mary Washington. He was named to the Moravian College Greyhound Starter's Classic All-Tournament Team. Hood finished the year with a 9-16 record.

STRAUGHN'S PRO PLAYER GALLERY

In 2009-10, his sophomore season, Straughn started 22-of-26 outings. The Blazers played to a 15-11 record and a 10-6 conference mark. He topped the squad in assists (85) and tied for second in steals (32). Straughn posted a double-double (21 points-10 rebounds) versus Mary Washington.

As a junior, Straughn was with the first unit in all 23 games he played in. He averaged a career-best 12.3 points per game and led the Blazers with 98 assists. His season-best 24 points came against Stevenson in the Pride Of Maryland Tournament. Hood finished 13-13.

The Blazers were 16-11 in 2011-12. Straughn played in 22 contests and finished third on the club in assists (60).

Hood earned a spot in the Capital Athletic Conference Tournament in each of Straughn's final three years.

Straughn ranks second in career assists at Hood (346) and 10th in games played (96).

He was a member of the Athletic Peer Mentor Group and the Black Student Union at Hood.

Straughn graduated from Hood College in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in business management and minors in accounting and finance.

Scholastic Star

Straughn was part of a strong high-school program at Eleanor Roosevelt. He played for Coach Brendan O'Connell.

In 2005-06, the Raiders were 24-2 overall, 13-1 in the region and ranked third in the state. The following season, Straughn's junior year, the Eleanor Roosevelt squad was 19-8 overall and 14-3 in the region. The Raiders were 15-6 overall and 11-4 in the region in 2007-08.

Orange Practice Projects

Straughn spent his first season working with the Syracuse forwards.

In 2024-25, Straughn began overseeing the Orange guards. His efforts contributed to J.J. Starling earning 2024-25 All-ACC Honorable Mention recognition.

Straughn participated in the exclusive 2025 Jay Bilas Coaches Leadership Program, designed for current Division I assistant coaches who aspire to be college head coaches.

2024-25 IN REVIEW

J.J. Starling was named All-ACC Honorable Mention after leading the Orange and ranking seventh in the conference in scoring average (17.8).

Mixing New Ingredients

Syracuse embarked on the 2024-25 campaign looking to blend three groups of players into a formidable roster. The Orange featured seven returning letterwinners, including starters J.J. Starling at guard and Chris Bell at forward, four Division I transfers, and three freshmen headlined by McDonald's All-American, Donnie Freeman.

Center Eddie Lampkin, a transfer from NCAA participant Colorado, moved to Syracuse along with forward Jyare Davis, an All-Coastal Athletic Association Second Team pick at Delaware. The backcourt added Jaquan Carlos, a two-year starter at Hofstra, and Georgia State transfer Lucas Taylor.

Big Beginnings

The Orange started fast, producing consecutive wins against Le Moyne, Colgate and Youngstown State, the latter a two-overtime thriller at the JMA Wireless Dome. Starling starred early with a career-high 38 points versus the Penguins.

Syracuse fared well against formidable foes at the UKG Legends Classic in Brooklyn. The Orange led late before losing by four to Texas, and then were defeated by Texas Tech by five points.

Freeman broke out with 23 points and 12 rebounds in a win against Cornell that put the Orange at 4-2.

The Best-Laid Plans

Syracuse took a serious hit to its blueprint for success when Starling suffered an injury. He had scored in double digits in each of the first six games and was averaging 19.8 points per game when he had to miss the SEC/ACC Challenge matchup at Tennessee. The Orange were beaten by the third-ranked Vols, 96-70, and Starling went on to sit out seven straight outings with the injury. Syracuse was 2-5 during that span.

ACC Territory

Starling was welcomed with open arms back into the lineup for a pairing at Florida State but the Orange suffered another blow. After Freeman posted 16 points and 10 rebounds in a loss to the Seminoles, he was determined to have an injury that would keep him out of play for the remainder of the campaign. Freeman finished his freshman year with 14 games played and averages of 13.4 points and 7.9 rebounds.

Wins in three of the next four contests stabilized the Syracuse ship. Starling had 21 points in a victory versus Georgia Tech and then scored 20 of his 26 points in the second half to help secure a comeback triumph against Boston College. Following a loss to Louisville, The Orange rallied from a 17-point deficit to defeat Notre Dame. Lampkin posted 13 points and 11 rebounds, his fourth consecutive double-double, to aid the cause against the Irish.

Two games later, Lampkin pulled down a career-high 23 rebounds, but the Orange could not hold on to a nine-point lead and lost at Pittsburgh. The board effort was the third-best in SU history and ended up being the top showing in the ACC in 2024-25.

Go West

The Orange finished out January and opened up February by jetting to the west coast for pairings with ACC newbies Stanford and Cal. A slow start against the Cardinal doomed Syracuse but the squad regrouped and defeated the Bears, 75-66. Taylor had 19 and Starling 18 to lead the effort.

Taking Extra Time

Following a home-court loss to #2 Duke, Syracuse waged a multiple-overtime affair with Boston College in the Dome. The Orange were behind by seven in the second overtime before rallying to force a third session. Behind Starling's 28 points and a 14-point, 18-rebounds performance by Lampkin, Syracuse emerged, 95-86.

Lampkin continued his solid post play, totaling 22 points and 13 rebounds in a seven-point loss at Miami, and scoring a career-high 26 points when the Orange were edged by North Carolina, 88-82.

The losing skid reached three at Pittsburgh, a game that saw the Orange sprint to a 22-6 lead before dropping the decision. Bell had a season-high 23 points.

Lampkin had 14 points and 15 rebounds, and keyed a 46-22 Syracuse advantage on points in the paint, as the Orange closed out February by beating NC State, 74-60.

The start of March brought another extra-session affair, this time at Virginia Tech. Syracuse had captured the first two overtime games of the campaign but this time a 13-point margin slipped away and the Hokies won, 101-95 in overtime. Davis had 21 points.

Syracuse pushed SMU to the edge in Texas, constructing a double-digit, second-half advantage, only to have the Mustangs charge back and hit the game-winner with three seconds left.

The Orange celebrated senior day by breaking a six-game losing streak in the Virginia series and beating the Cavaliers, 84-70. Lampkin produced his 14th double-double with 25 points and 10 boards.

Payback At The ACC Tournament

Syracuse was able to avenge one of its regular-season losses in the ACC Tournament. The Orange defeated Florida State, 66-62, thanks in part to Starling, who had 19 of his 27 points in the second half.

The season came to a close at the hands of SMU in the second round of the ACC Tournament. The Orange ended up 14-19 overall and 7-13 in the ACC.

Lampkin led the ACC in offensive rebounds per game (3.5) and was second in rebound average (9.6) and double-doubles (14).

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Indiana's Keith Smart nailed a baseline jumper with four seconds left to lead the Hoosiers to a 74-73 NCAA Championship game victory against Syracuse.

The contest marked the first championship contest appearance for the Orange. SU battled throughout the tilt with Indiana in a matchup that featured 13 ties and 19 lead changes.

Syracuse led by as many as eight points in the second half, a margin reached following a Howard Triche jumper that put the Orange ahead, 52-44, with 13:09 remaining. The two clubs were knotted at 68-68 with 2:27 left. Rony Seikaly converted a layup, but the effort was answered by Smart's reverse layup at the 1:21 mark. Triche tallied a jumper in the lane and then rebounded a Smart miss and was fouled with 38 ticks remaining. He converted one of two from the line and Indiana raced down court for a Smart bucket to pull back within one, 73-72. The Hoosiers fouled Derrick Coleman with just under half a minute to play, but Coleman missed the front end of the one-and-one, setting up Smart's heroics.

The Orange were up five in the first half, 29-24, thanks to Greg Monroe's 3-pointer. Indiana scored 10 of the last 14 points of the half to head into the break with a one-point lead.

Coleman grabbed 19 rebounds, just two shy of the NCAA championship game record. Sherman Douglas led the Orange with 20 points.

Syracuse was represented on the all-tournament team by Coleman and Douglas.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. – Tony Delk posted a 24-point performance, including seven 3-point baskets, to help Kentucky defeat Syracuse for the 1996 NCAA Championship, 76-67.

Kentucky took advantage of 24 Syracuse turnovers, scoring 27 points off those miscues.

Syracuse followed the lead of John Wallace and battled to the end. Wallace finished with 29 points and 10 rebounds before fouling out.

Trailing by nine at the intermission, the Orange battled back, narrowing the deficit to a basket on two occasions, the first on a dunk by Todd Burgan off a lob pass from Lazarus Sims. Two free throws by Wallace made it 64-62 with 4:46 left. Kentucky pushed the advantage back up to eight but Burgan tallied a 3-pointer with 2:02 remaining to pull SU within five, 72-67. The Wildcats closed out the scoring and the game on two free throws by Mark Pope and a finger roll from Delk.

Burgan, who finished with 19 points, tallied 14 in the final 20 minutes. Like Wallace, he fouled out late in the outing.

Delk helped Kentucky build its first-half margin with 18 of his 24 points coming prior to the intermission. Ron Mercer came off the bench to post 20 points, including 11 in the first half. Trailing 18-13, Syracuse put together an 10-2 run that featured six points from Sims and four from Wallace. A jumper by Wallace at 6:34 put Syracuse ahead, 23-20. After a Mercer three-pointer, Burgan converted a driving layup to give the Orange their last lead, 25-23.

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Hakim Warrick knocked a Michael Lee 3-point attempt out of bounds in the final seconds to help Syracuse hold on to win its first NCAA Championship, 81-78, against Kansas.

With SU ahead, 15-12, the Orange broke the game open with a 17-5 run that featured two 3-pointers from Gerry McNamara. The first-year guard went on to convert six threes in the first half as the SU edge swelled to as many as 18. The margin was 11, 53-42, at the break.

Kansas cut that to three early in the second half, 55-52. After SU pushed the difference back to 12 points, the Jayhawks flew back to within two, 80-78, with 39 seconds left to play. Senior Kueth Duany split a pair of free throws to put the lead at three with 24 seconds on the clock. Warrick missed two at the foul line, but his block and a last-second, misfired 3-pointer by KU secured the win.

Syracuse's 53 first-half points were the most in the opening period of a championship game. The Orange's 11 3-point field goals tied for the second-most in a championship game. SU's 61.1 percent shooting from 3-point range (11-of-18) in the title game ranked second-highest. On the defensive end, SU's seven blocks equaled the most in a title contest.

Freshman Carmelo Anthony was selected Final Four Most Outstanding Player and McNamara was named to the All-Final Four team.

Syracuse was the first unit since Villanova in 1985 to be unranked in the preseason AP poll and win the NCAA crown.

NEW YORK, N.Y. – Syracuse fought its way through its front line fouling out and forced overtime before finally losing to Tulsa in the NIT Championship, 86-84. Erich Santifer had a game-high 29 points and nine rebounds in SU's first appearance in the NIT title game.

Greg Stewart scored a team-high 23 points and grabbed 11 rebounds for the Hurricane. He earned game MVP honors.

Tulsa came out firing in the first half, opening up leads as big as 11 points and holding a six-point margin at the half, 48-42.

Syracuse stormed out of the intermission with a 21-8 run that built a 63-56 lead. Tony Bruin had eight points and Santifer six, during the run.

Tulsa responded by scoring 11 of the next 13 points, including five points from Stewart. SU postman Danny Schayes fouled out with 7:30 left after just 21 minutes of action and Bruin, who finished with 25 points, was disqualified with 2:17 left and the Orange down three. Leo Rautins' tip-in brought Syracuse within one, but he fouled out on Tulsa's next possession. Mike Anderson tallied and added the free throw to put the Hurricane up, 82-78, with 1:16 left.

Gene Waldron drove the length of the court for a basket and Santifer put back a missed shot with one second left to force the overtime.

Tulsa's David Brown and SU's Sean Kerins traded two free throws before Stewart made the game-winner, a lay-in, with 30 ticks remaining.

Tulsa outscored the Orange at the foul line, 30-12.

Archbold Gym (1908-47, 1952-55)

Archbold Gym was home to the Orange from 1908-1947. Following a fire, the building was renovated and Syracuse moved back in for games played between 1952 and 1955. While Archbold was rebuilt, Syracuse played at the New York State Fair Coliseum. During the 1951-52 campaign, some contests were played at the Onondaga County War Memorial.

War Memorial (1951-52, 1955-62)

While Archbold Gym was reconstructed following a fire, Syracuse used what is now known as the Onondaga County War Memorial (above) and the New York State Fair Coliseum. The Orange returned to the 7,000-seat War Memorial in 1955.

Manley Field House (1962-80)

Syracuse men's basketball called the George L. Manley Field House home from 1962 to 1980. During that span it was not a welcoming venue for Syracuse foes. The Orange were 190-30 on the Manley court and posted winning streaks of 36 and 57 games.

The BIG EAST Conference

The BIG EAST Conference was officially formed on May 31, 1979, when Syracuse, Boston College, Connecticut, Georgetown, Providence, St. John's and Seton Hall joined together. Dave Gavitt, the athletic director at Providence at the time, served as acting commissioner.

"Just the nature of our teams ensures us one of the best basketball groups in the East and nationally our conference is already being recognized as one of the premier leagues," said Gavitt at the time.

Each BIG EAST member played each other during the inaugural season. The 1980 postseason tournament was held at the Providence Civic Center.

Villanova joined the league for the 1980-81 campaign while Pittsburgh came on board in 1982-83. Miami was added in 1991-92 and Notre Dame, Rutgers and West Virginia debuted in 1995-96. Virginia Tech gave the league 14 members in 2000-01.

When Miami, Virginia Tech and Boston College departed over a two-year period, the conference acted decisively, adding Cincinnati, DePaul, Louisville, Marquette and USF for the 2005-06 season. West Virginia's move to the Big 12 brought the league to 15 for 2012-13, Syracuse's last year as a BIG EAST Conference member.

The JMA Wireless Dome (1980-present)

The opening of the Carrier Dome in 1980 gave Syracuse one of the marquee basketball venues in the country. For 40 straight years, from the 1980-81 season through the 2019-20 campaign, SU hosted the largest on-campus crowd in college basketball. The facility was renamed the JMA Wireless Dome in 2022.

The Atlantic Coast Conference

On July 1, 2013, Syracuse officially became a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC). The affiliation grouped the Syracuse program with one of the strongest across-the-board conferences in the country.

Syracuse, along with Pittsburgh and Notre Dame from the BIG EAST Conference, joined up with Boston College, Clemson, Duke, Florida State, Georgia Tech, Maryland, Miami, North Carolina, NC State, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest.

Louisville joined the league in 2014-15 while Maryland departed.

California, Southern Methodist and Stanford joined the ACC prior to the 2024-25 season. California and Stanford transferred from the PAC 12 Conference, while Southern Methodist moved from the American Athletic Conference.

SYRACUSE ALL-CENTURY TEAM

Coach Jim Boeheim and 25 players were selected to the SU All-Century Team, by fan vote, during the 1999-00 season. The team was recognized at halftime of the Feb. 27, 2000 home game against Georgetown. The All-Century Team was named to coincide with "100 Years of Basketball" at Syracuse.

The All-Century squad featured 18 players who earned All-America honors. Nine of the individuals were first-round NBA draft choices and four were current NBA performers. As of the start of the 2019-20 campaign, 12 members of the All-Century team had their jerseys retired.

Boeheim was associated as a player, assistant or head coach, with all but four of the selections. Twenty-two of the 25 players named scored 1,000 points in their Syracuse careers.

SYRACUSE BASKETBALL HONORS

Syracuse Coach Jim Boeheim was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on September 9, 2005. He was presented by his former college roommate and Hall of Fame member Dave Bing.

Carmelo Anthony, who produced one of the greatest one-year performances in college basketball history, and went on to a stellar NBA career, was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on September 6, 2025.

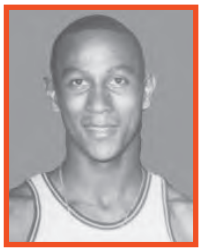
Orange In the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame

The Syracuse men's basketball program has four representatives in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame – Carmelo Anthony, Dave Bing, Jim Boeheim and Victor Hanson.

The Hall of Fame had its origins in the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). Its first class was inducted in 1959.

Victor Hanson Inducted 1960

Hanson was part of the second class in 1960. He was a member of the Syracuse basketball team for three seasons, from 1924-27. Hanson was named an All-American each year by the Helms Foundation. He remains the only player to be inducted into both the College Football and Naismith Memorial Basketball Halls of Fame.



Dave Bing Inducted 1990

Bing was inducted on May 15, 1990. A consensus All-American at Syracuse, Bing led the Orange in scoring in all three of his varsity seasons. He went on to play 12 seasons in the NBA. The 1967 NBA Rookie of the Year, Bing was named to the NBA's 50th and 75th Anniversary teams.

Boeheim was welcomed into the Hall of September 9, 2025, with Bing was on hand to present him. Boeheim had a 47-year tenure as head coach at Syracuse. At the time of his retirement, he ranked second among Division I coaches in wins. Boeheim guided 35 squads into the NCAA Tournament and coached the 2003 NCAA Championship team.

Anthony became the most recent to be inducted, on September 6, 2025. He played one season with the Orange and helped lead the team to the program's first NCAA Championship. A consensus All-American as a freshman, Anthony was also named the 2003 Final Four Most Outstanding Player. He played 19 seasons in the NBA and earned a spot on the league's 75th Anniversary Team. Anthony was a four-time member of the U.S. Olympic team and won three gold medals.

In 1968, the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame opened. In June of 1985, it moved to its Springfield, Mass. location.

SYRACUSE BASKETBALL HONORS

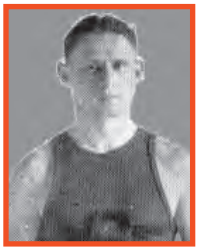
The Helms Foundation

The Helms Athletic Foundation, a sports organization in Los Angeles, was founded in 1936 by Paul Helms.

Helms and his assistant, Bill Schroeder, put together a panel of basketball experts to select national collegiate basketball champions. The panel voted a champion annually until 1982.

The Foundation also awarded national champions, players of the year and All-Americans retroactively, dating back to 1901. It selected a Hall of Fame, as well.

Syracuse's 1917-18 squad and the 1925-26 team were recognized by the Helms Athletic Foundation as national champions.



Joseph Schwarzer

The 1917-18 club produced a 16-1 record. Syracuse won its first 16 games of the campaign before suffering its only loss to Pennsylvania, 17-16, on the last day of the season. SU was coached by Edmund Dollard and led by captain and Helms Foundation All-American Joseph Schwarzer.

Lewis Andreas

Coach Lewis Andreas guided the Orange in 1925-26. It was his most successful team in a career which saw him guide Syracuse to a 358-135 record (.726). The team, recognized retroactively by the Helms Foundation, was 19-1.

Lewis Castle

Andreas, who coached men's basketball at Syracuse from 1924-50, former player Lewis Castle, who played from 1912-15 and Victor Hanson were named to the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame. Castle was a two-time Helms Foundation All-American, earning selection in 1912 and 1914. Hanson was tabbed for three straight seasons – 1925-1927 – and was named the Helms Foundation Player of the Year in 1927.

The following Syracuse performers were named to the Helms Foundation All-America teams: Lewis Castle (1912, 1914), Joseph Schwarzer (1918), Leon Marcus (1919), Victor Hanson (1925, 1926, 1927), Billy Gabor (1946, 1947), John Kiley (1951), Vincent Cohen (1957) and Dave Bing (1965).

1917-18 Helms Foundation National Champions

SYRACUSE RETIRED JERSEYS

Carmelo Anthony – 15
February 23, 2013

Carmelo Anthony produced a remarkable single season of achievement at Syracuse.

He helped lead a squad that was unranked during the preseason to the 2003 NCAA Championship in his only campaign at Syracuse. He was a consensus All-American and the Final Four Most Outstanding Player.

An NBA first-round pick, Anthony has starred with Denver, New York, Oklahoma City, Houston, Portland and the Lakers.

Dave Bing – 22
Vic Hanson – 8
December 19, 1981

Dave Bing and Vic Hanson had their jerseys retired on the same date in 1981. Both players were inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Bing was an All-American at Syracuse and then Detroit's number two pick in 1966. He played 12 years in the NBA.

Hanson was a three-time Helms Foundation All-American and a member of the storied 1925-26 team that finished 19-1.

Roosevelt Bouie – 50
February 21, 2015

Bouie was a four-year starter who still ranks second in blocks at Syracuse. He earned first-team All-BIG EAST Conference as a senior. Bouie earned All-America recognition from the Associated Press, Basketball Weekly, Sporting News, UPI and USBWA in 1979-80.

He was picked in the second round of the 1980 NBA Draft by Dallas but opted for what resulted in a highly successful pro career in Europe.

Louis Orr – 55
February 21, 2015

Orr was a three-year starter at Syracuse. He was an Associated Press and Sporting News honorable mention All-American in 1979-80.

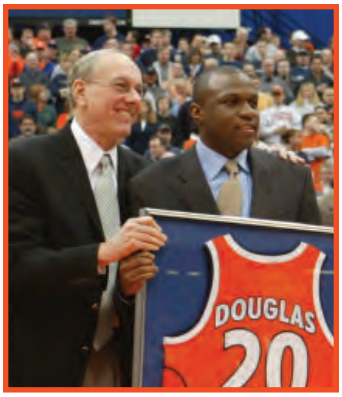
Orr was selected in the second round of the 1980 NBA Draft by Indiana. He played eight years in the NBA with the Pacers and the Knicks. A former assistant coach at Syracuse, Orr was a head coach at Siena, Seton Hall and Bowling Green. He is currently an assistant at Georgetown.

Derrick Coleman – 44
March 6, 2006

Derrick Coleman had his #44 SU jersey retired in 2006.

Coleman accumulated 2,143 points and 1,537 rebounds in four seasons. He ranks second in career scoring and first in career rebounding at Syracuse. Coleman posted 83 double-doubles in his tenure, the third-highest total in Division I.

He was the number one pick of the New Jersey Nets in 1990 and played 15 seasons in the NBA.



Sherman Douglas – 20
March 9, 2003

Sherman Douglas, who tied the NCAA mark for game assists with 22 versus Providence in 1989, had his jersey honored in 2003.

Douglas remains the Syracuse leader in career assists and he is third in steals. He ranks sixth in career points (2,060) .

He was a consensus All-American in 1988-89 and a three-time, first-team All-BIG EAST pick.

Douglas played for five teams over 12 seasons.

Dennis DuVal– 22
January 6, 2018

Dennis DuVal started all 81 games he played in at Syracuse. He averaged 18.6 points per game and accumulated 1,504 career points in the three seasons. DuVal was a two-time All-American.

The Washington Bullets tabbed DuVal in the 1974 NBA Draft. He spent one season with the Bullets and had a stint with the Atlanta Hawks.

Billy Gabor– 17
March 1, 2009

Billy "Bullet" Gabor was a fixture in the SU lineup for four seasons. He missed two years while with the U.S. Air Force in World War II.

At one point, Gabor held Syracuse scoring records for game (36), season (409) and career (1,344). He played on the first Orange squad to win 20 games, the 1945-46 club.

He played seven NBA seasons for the Syracuse Nationals.

SYRACUSE RETIRED JERSEYS

Gerry McNamara – 3
March 4, 2023

McNamara started on four NCAA Tournament teams, including the 2003 NCAA Championship squad, at Syracuse.

A 2005-06 All-American and two-time first team All-BIG EAST honoree, McNamara finished his career ranked first in free-throw percentage, 3-point field goals and minutes played. He was fourth in career scoring, third in career assists and second in career steals.

He played professionally in the NBA D-League and overseas.

Lawrence Moten – 21
March 3, 2018

At the time of his jersey retirement, Moten still had the Syracuse standard for career points with 2,334. He also established the BIG EAST Conference record for points, which stood until 2019-20. Moten was a three-time All-American and All-BIG EAST selection.

He was drafted by the Vancouver Grizzlies in the 1995 NBA Draft. He also played for the Washington Wizards.

Billy Owens – 30
March 8, 2008

Owens was the 1987-88 Basketball Times High School Player of the Year at Carlisle High School (Pa.).

He earned All-America recognition in 1989-90 and 1990-91. Owens still ranked 12th in scoring and eighth in rebounding when he was honored.

Owens was taken third overall by the Sacramento Kings in the 1991 NBA Draft. He played 10 seasons in the NBA.

Rony Seikaly – 4
January 13, 2007

The third member of SU's 1987 Final Four squad to have his jersey retired, Seikaly was honored in 2007.

At the time of the ceremony, Seikaly still ranked 13th in points (1,716) and second in rebounds (1,094).

He was chosen ninth overall in the 1988 draft by the Miami Heat. Seikaly also played with Golden State, Orlando and New Jersey during his NBA career.

Wilmeth Sidat-Singh – 19
February 26, 2005

Sidat-Singh was a two-sport standout who was killed during a 1943 training mission with the U.S. Army Air Corps. He was a member of the historic African-American "Tuskegee Airmen."

He excelled in football and basketball in college and played professional basketball after earning his SU degree.

He was honored posthumously, with former teammate John Schroeder on hand.

John Wallace – 44
February 29, 2020

Wallace, who grew up in nearby Rochester, led the 1995-96 squad to the NCAA Championship game, capping a stellar four-year career. He was a consensus All-American in 1996. Wallace remains the third leading scorer and rebounder at Syracuse.

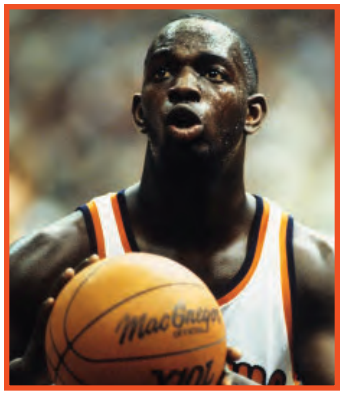
He was a first-round pick of the New York Knicks and played seven seasons in the NBA.

Hakim Warrick – 1
March 4, 2023

Warrick, a two-time All-American, was a starter on Syracuse's 2003 NCAA Championship team.

The 2004-05 BIG EAST Conference Player of the Year Warrick earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors twice.

He ended his career ranked fifth in career scoring and fourth in career rebounding at SU. He was a first-round pick in the 2005 NBA Draft and played in the league for eight seasons.



Dwayne Washington – 31
March 2, 1996

"Pearl" Washington went from playground legend to BIG EAST Conference superstar.

He was first-team All-BIG EAST twice and was the conference tournament MVP in 1985. He earned All-America recognition in 1984, 1985 and 1986. Washington led the Orange in assists and steals all three years.

He was the first-round choice of the New Jersey Nets in the 1986 NBA Draft.

Jim Boeheim capped a 47-year head coaching career as the second winningest mentor in the Division I ranks. It's a position he still holds in retirement, along with a museum-full of trophies, honors and accomplishments.

Boeheim coached in and won more games than any other Division I court boss outside of Duke legend Mike Krzyzewski.

The man Esquire Magazine dubbed "The Forever Coach" in a 2019 feature story was committed to keeping the forever part going for awhile.

Guiding Syracuse, his alma mater, to the NCAA center stage, the Final Four, was a great achievement for Boeheim and his 1987 and 1996 clubs. He took it a step further when the Orange won it all in 2003.

Boeheim engineered a fourth trip to the Final Four in 2013 and became just the fourth coach (joining Mike Krzyzewski, Rick Pitino and Dean Smith) to take a club to the Final Four in four different decades. His 2015-16 squad made the now familiar run to the Final Four before losing to North Carolina. It was the fifth SU trip to the semifinals during Boeheim's tenure.

Gauging The Numbers

When assessing Boeheim's 47-year run at SU, the numbers befit someone who has had a Hall-of-Fame career:

- Postseason invitations (NCAA or NIT) for SU in 42 of 47 seasons;
- NCAA berths in 35 years.
- Twenty teams in the NCAA Sweet 16, six in the Elite Eight and five in the Final Four;
- A string of 10 consecutive NCAA tournament berths (1983-1992), the fourth-longest streak of all-time;
- Seven NIT appearances;

Boeheim's totals stack up against the most prominent names in college basketball:

- He is the only Division I coach who guided a team into the NCAA Tournament in six different decades;
- Boeheim is second among Division I coaches in wins, trailing only Mike Krzyzewski (Army, Duke);
- Only Krzyzewski coached more 20-win teams than Boeheim;
- He is fifth overall among Division I coaches in NCAA Tournament wins (58);
- Boeheim logged 47 years as head coach at SU, the second-longest tenure at one Division I school;
- He has more wins at his alma mater than any other Division I coach in history;

Boeheim's Beginnings

His roots reside in Central New York. Boeheim was born on November 17, 1944 in Lyons, N.Y., about 48 miles east of Rochester. He was a prep standout at Lyons Central High School, earning all-section and all-state honors in basketball for coach Dick Blackwell. As a senior, Boeheim helped Lyons to the Class AA final game. In front of a then-record crowd of 9,871 at the War Memorial in Rochester, Lyons lost to East Rochester, 58-57, in two overtimes, despite 18 points from Boeheim.

He ended his last year as the Wayne-Finger Lakes Conference scoring champ (24.9 avg.).

Turning Orange

Boeheim was determined to continue playing. In 1962, he walked on at Syracuse and, after making an impression on Coach Fred Lewis, earned a spot. By his senior season he was a co-captain with SU legend Dave Bing.

The 1965-66 Orange posted a 22-6 overall record and made the program's second-ever NCAA Tournament visit. In the NCAA East Region in Raleigh, N.C., Syracuse took care of Davidson, 94-78. In the regional final, SU was edged by Duke, 91-81. Boeheim tallied 15 points. That year's SU team led the NCAA in scoring (99.0 ppg.).

As a senior, Boeheim averaged 14.6 points and became the 10th player in school history to exceed 400 points in a season. The Orange were 55-24 (.696) with Boeheim on the roster.

Boeheim was a prep standout at Lyons Central High School, earning all-state recognition. He also had a productive collegiate career at Syracuse.

After graduating with a B.A. in social science in 1966, he embarked on a professional career with Scranton of the Eastern League. He played for four years, was a member of two championship clubs and earned second-team all-star honors.

A Clipboard And A Whistle

Boeheim was named a graduate assistant coach at SU on the staff of Roy Danforth in 1969. He earned a master's degree in social science and coached the freshman team to a 16-2 record.

In 1972, he was promoted to a full-time assistant's post and the Orange earned its first NCAA berth since Boeheim's last year as a player. The 1973-74 group was back in the NCAA's and the 1974-75 squad became the first SU club to reach the Final Four.

Syracuse was 139-65 (.681) with Boeheim on Danforth's staff.

The head coaching job opened up in 1976 when Danforth left for Tulane. On April 3, 1976, Boeheim was put in charge.

In his first four years in charge, Boeheim coached Syracuse to a remarkable record of 100-18 (.847) and four NCAA playoff berths.

The Dean Of The BIG EAST

The formation of The BIG EAST Conference, which began play in 1979-80, helped focus the national spotlight on the Syracuse program.

The league featured a number of high-profile players, and a dynamic set of coaches. John Thompson (Georgetown), Tom Davis (Boston College), Lou Carnesecca (St. John's) and Rollie Massimino (Villanova) claimed BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors in the league's first four seasons. Boeheim joined the group with conference coach of the year recognition in 1983-84, and repeated the honor three other seasons. The league would also feature coaches Jim Calhoun (Connecticut), P. J. Carlesimo (Seton Hall), Rick Pitino (Providence, Louisville) and Gary Williams (Boston College). Visionaries Dave Gavitt and Michael Tranghese served in the commissioner's chair.

Boeheim's Syracuse clubs accumulated a conference-record 10 BIG EAST titles, five tournament crowns, and a league-record 15 trips to the BIG EAST championship game.

Boeheim is the only head coach whose tenure covered the league's first 34 seasons. He still owns the most coaching victories in BIG EAST history.

Boeheim's players garnered 101 All-BIG EAST Conference honors, more than any other school accumulated. His 35 first-team and 25 second-team picks ranked first as well at the time of Syracuse's departure.

An ACC "Newcomer"

Syracuse's change in conference affiliation to the ACC in 2013-14 put Boeheim in the odd spot of being a league rookie at the time.

The on-court transition from the BIG EAST to the ACC went smoothly as the Orange put together a 14-4 league mark, good for second place, in 2014.

An Honorable Career

Boeheim has been on the receiving end of numerous accolades in his career.

After the NCAA title in 2003, Boeheim and the Orange were frequently feted. The team was honored by the City of Syracuse with a "Parade of Champions" on April 12. Boeheim was presented a key to the city by Mayor Matthew J. Driscoll.

Three days later, Boeheim and his club were welcomed to the New York State Capitol and recognized with Senate and Assembly resolutions.

Governor George Pataki hosted a luncheon at the Governor's Mansion.

Both Boeheim and Orange standout Carmelo Anthony were finalists for recognition at the 2003 ESPY Awards.

On June 17, 2003, the Orange were guests of Congressman James Walsh and Senators Hillary Clinton and Charles Schumer at a reception in Washington D.C. The team was honored at the White House by President George W. Bush as part of Champions Day.

Awards have also come in recognition of Boeheim's charitable endeavors. The Crouse Health Foundation chose Boeheim as its honoree for its 2003 gala, Tribute Evening.

In the Spring of 2005, he received the James P. Wilmot Cancer Center's Inspiration Award for his efforts to raise awareness about prostate cancer and support cancer prevention education.

During the 2005-06 school year he was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, accepted the Wooden Legends of Coaching Award and received the "Spirit of Jimmy V" award at the annual V Foundation Dinner.

The American Cancer Society presented Boeheim with the 2016 Circle of Honor Award. The award is given to a college coach who has shown extraordinary commitment and leadership with Coaches vs. Cancer.

Boeheim was given the 2019 Court of Honor Award from the NABC Foundation. It goes to "individuals who have roots in college basketball, values those roots and have gone on to distinguish themselves in their profession, exhibiting the highest standards of leadership."

From SU To The NBA

Twenty-three of Boeheim's players, starting with Marty Byrnes in the 1978 draft and continuing to Tyler Lydon in 2017, have been drafted in the NBA's first round.

Seven have been picked in the draft's top 10. Derrick Coleman was the first overall selection in 1990, by the New Jersey Nets. Rony Sekaily (ninth, 1988), Billy Owens (third, 1991), Carmelo Anthony (third, 2003), Jonny Flynn (sixth, 2009), Wesley Johnson (fourth, 2010) and Dion Waiters (fourth, 2012) round out Syracuse's top-10 picks.

Many of the SU NBA performers have had highly-successful tenures. Danny Schayes, the 13th pick in the 1981 draft by the Utah Jazz, played 18 seasons. Coleman logged 15 years with stops in New Jersey, Philadelphia, Charlotte and Detroit.

Seikaly managed 11 NBA seasons. Sherman Douglas was a second-round pick in 1989 and lasted 12 years.

Two seniors from the 1999-00 SU squad spent sizeable time in the NBA. Etan Thomas was taken 12th by the Dallas Mavericks and ended his career in 2011-12 with the Atlanta Hawks. Jason Hart was a second-round pick and played until 2010.

Anthony has scored more NBA points than any other former SU player. After starting with the Denver Nuggets, Anthony was traded to the New York Knicks in 2010-11. Anthony rejoined forces with Boeheim on the U.S. Men's Team that captured the gold medal in the 2008 Beijing, 2012 London and 2016 Rio Olympics.

The Boeheim Family

Boeheim and his wife, Juli, were married in the fall of 1997. They have three children: James III, and twins, Buddy and Jamie. Jim also is the father of a daughter, Elizabeth.

When it comes to sports, the Boeheim's are "Ball in the Family." Jimmy, who received his undergraduate degree from Cornell in 2021, transferred to Syracuse for his final year of eligibility. He is playing professionally in Portugal. Buddy finished his collegiate career at Syracuse and is part of the Oklahoma City Thunder organization. He has excelled in the G-League. Jamie, who played on three state championship squads at Jamesville-DeWitt High School, received a bachelor's degree from Rochester in 2022, and a master's degree from Syracuse.

THE BOEHEIM FOUNDATION

The Jim and Juli Boeheim Foundation was formed in 2009.

Jim Boeheim and his wife, Juli, started the Jim and Juli Boeheim Foundation in 2009. The Foundation has organized the annual "Basket Ball," the Jim Boeheim Golf Classic, Courts 4 Kids, which refurbishes or builds basketball courts in the Syracuse area, Cruise For A Cure, a fund-raiser for Coaches vs. Cancer, and the Jim Boeheim Fantasy Camp.

The Foundation's grant program has provided millions of dollars in grants for Central New York organizations that work with children in need and those touched by cancer.

Boeheim has been honored many times for his commitment to benevolent purposes:

- He was given the 2000 Distinguished Service Award from the American Cancer Society.
- He was the honoree at the Crouse Health Foundation Tribute Evening 2003.
- He received the 2005 James P. Wilmot Cancer Center's Inspiration Award.
- He shared the 2006 "Spirit of Jimmy V" honor with Connecticut coach Jim Calhoun
- He was feted at the 70th Annual Father of the Year Awards in 2011.
- In 2016, Boeheim was given the American Cancer Society Circle of Honor Award.

The Jim and Juli Boeheim Foundation strives to enrich the lives of kids in need within our Central New York community, as well as provide support for eliminating cancer through research and advocacy.

He has been a guiding force behind "Coaches vs. Cancer," a partnership between the American Cancer Society and the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) that has raised millions of dollars for cancer research.

Boeheim has served as chair of the Coaches vs. Cancer Governance Committee, which was formed to provide strategic leadership, advice and direction to the partnering activities, and to implement policies and procedures.

Among many other successful local events Boeheim and his team joined in on were the Hoops For Hope Dinner to benefit the Boys and Girls Clubs of Syracuse and the Make-A-Wish Foundation's Ms. Orange Fan Luncheon.

He has been honorary chairman and president of the Kidney Foundation. Boeheim has done charitable work with the Jack Bruen Fund, Casey's Place, Children's Miracle Network, Cystic Fibrosis, Easter Seals, The Eldercare Foundation, Lighthouse, Multiple Sclerosis, People in Wheelchairs, Pioneer Center for the Blind and Disabled, the Rescue Mission, Special Olympics, The Syracuse Community Health Center and SUNY Upstate Medical Center, among others.

BOEHEIM COURT

Boeheim Court

The basketball court at the Dome was officially named the "Jim Boeheim Court" at a ceremony prior to the SU-Georgetown basketball game on February 24, 2002.

"I am delighted for Jim and I am delighted that literally thousands of people have helped show their appreciation for his achievements," said then-Syracuse University Chancellor Kenneth Shaw. "It is a well-deserved honor."

The recognition honored Boeheim's 30 years as a full-time member of the Syracuse University coaching staff, dating back to 1972, and his four years as a student-athlete (1962-66).

A committee to name the court, led by Joe Lampe, then-Syracuse University Chair of the Board of Trustees, and Joyce Hergenhan, a member of the Board of Trustees, headed the campaign to name the court.

"Naming the basketball court at the Carrier Dome in honor of Jim Boeheim reflects the University's and the Athletics Department's appreciation for someone whose contributions to Syracuse University are immeasurable," said retired SU Director of Athletics Jake Crouthamel at the time of the dedication.

The crowd of 29,215 who packed the Dome on "dedication day" represented the largest on-campus gathering in college basketball that season. The game was televised by CBS.

Court Redesign

Jim Boeheim Court was enhanced in the fall of 2019 with a number of new artistic elements. It was unveiled at the Orange vs. White scrimmage on October 11, 2019.

The numbers from Syracuse's retired jerseys were displayed on the east apron of the court. Alternating orange and blue stripes, a characteristic of the team's uniform, were also part of the design.

The familiar block S and Jim Boeheim's signature are positioned in the midcourt area.

BOEHEIM AND USA BASKETBALL

Jim Boeheim played a major role in the development of USA Basketball, the national governing body for men's and women's basketball in the United States. His involvement began in a coaching capacity for teams competing nationally. He has served as the chair of the USA Basketball Men's Junior National Committee while also holding a spot as an assistant coach with the Senior Men's Team staff.

The basketball portion of the U.S. Olympic program was not in a position of international strength when Boeheim was asked by Duke Coach Mike Krzyzewski to become involved. The Americans were coming off a rare bronze-medal finish in 2004.

The rebuild began with a bronze-medal effort in the 2006 World Championship. Since that time, the Americans won, in succession, the 2007 FIBA Americas Championship, the 2008 Beijing Olympics, the 2010 World Championship, the 2012 London Olympics, the 2014 World Championship, and the 2016 Brazil Olympics.

2016 Brazil Olympics • Gold Medal
Jim Boeheim, Assistant Coach

2016 Brazil Olympics

The United States won its third consecutive Olympic gold medal by defeating Serbia, 96-66, in the final. Carmelo Anthony became the top scorer and rebounder in U.S. Olympic history. It was his fourth Olympics with the American team, another U.S. standard.

It represented a third straight gold-medal result for Coach Mike Krzyzewski and assistant Jim Boeheim, and the second for assistant coaches Tom Thibodeau and Monty Williams. Syracuse's Mike Hopkins was also on board as a court coach.

The U.S. National Team improved to 88-1 in FIBA or FIBA Americas competitions since Jerry Colangelo took over the program in 2006.

2012 London Olympics • Gold Medal
Jim Boeheim, Assistant Coach

2012 London Olympics

A championship game victory against Spain gave the 2012 USA Men's Basketball National Team its second straight Olympic gold medal. The Americans defeated the Spaniards, 107-100.

The team was a perfect 8-0 and averaged 115.5 points per game. Team USA set an Olympic record by scoring 156 points against Nigeria and Carmelo Anthony scored a standard-setting 37 points. LeBron James was named most valuable player.

Coach Mike Krzyzewski's coaching staff, formed first for the 2006 World Championship, was intact. Krzyzewski became the first U.S. coach to guide back-to-back gold medal winners in basketball.

2008 Beijing Olympics • Gold Medal
Jim Boeheim, Assistant Coach

2008 Beijing Olympics

The United States recaptured the Olympic gold medal for the first time since 2000. NBA standouts Carmelo Anthony, Kobe Bryant and their teammates ran through the tournament without suffering a defeat, forging an 8-0 record. Team USA defeated Spain in the gold-medal game, 118-107.

JMA WIRELESS DOME

The JMA Wireless Dome

Syracuse University and JMA Wireless announced a 10-year partnership for naming rights of the University's iconic on-campus stadium in 2022.

New Stadium Experience

On March 16, 2020, the Carrier Dome roof was deflated to make way for the construction of a fixed-roof structure. This multi-year enhancement project is now part of a new stadium experience that includes the new roof, center-hung scoreboard, and state-of-the-art sound and lighting systems. Additional enhancements have comprised of air conditioning, accessibility upgrades, increased Wi-Fi capabilities, plus locker room, restroom, and concessions improvements.

Original Design and Construction

The original Dome construction cost was $26.85 million, which was funded in part by a $2.75 million naming gift from Carrier Corporation. Hueber, Hunt and Nichols, Inc., was the general contractor and Birdair Structure Inc. of Buffalo handled the roof.

More than 80 companies contributed to transforming 30,000 cubic yards of concrete and 880 tons of steel into the fifth-largest domed stadium in the U.S. and the first such facility in the Northeast.

ORIGINAL DOME DATA

Construction: April 1979 to Sept. 1980

Dimensions: 570 feet long, 497 feet wide, 165 feet high

Floor space: 527,320 square feet

Lot: 7.7 acres

Lighting: 432 metal halide MultiVapor bulbs (1,500 watts each), 60 quartz flood lights (1,500 watts each) and 56 high-pressure lights

Capacity: 50,248 (football and lacrosse); 35,642 (basketball)

Basketball Floor Surfaces

Boeheim Court is a 60-foot by 100-foot hardwood basketball floor. It sits in the west end zone and is composed of 225 interlocking sections. It rests on a hard field covering system called BRAVO Mat, which sits on top of the FieldTurf.

A new court was put in place for the 2019-20 season. It included artistic elements of Syracuse's uniform and a sideline salute to the basketball jerseys that have been retired.

Chaired

Chairback seats were installed during the spring and summer of 2024, replacing metal benches that were part of the original design.

While the upgrade decreased the building's capacity (down to 30,219 for basketball), the change made for a more comfortable setting for Syracuse fans.

Concerts

The Dome has hosted some of the world's top entertainers, including Luke Bryan, Eric Clapton, Billy Joel, Elton John, Paul McCartney, Metalica, Pink, the Rolling Stones, Bruce Springsteen and The Who.

Entrances

Entry to the Dome is through one of 32 revolving doors. Another 62 "out only" crash doors give the Dome a total of 94 exit doors. Gates A and C on the lower level and Gate G on the upper level have doors for patrons with mobility limitations.

Lighting and Sound

The lighting package illuminates a surface that is 215 by 405 feet.

The sound system consists of eight distributed clusters of BOSE speakers that hang from the roof cables. They were installed in the two concourses, under the overhangs on the second level seating, and in stairwells, offices and hard-to-reach areas.

Locker Rooms Renovation

The home team and coaches locker room, the visiting football locker room, and the athletic training rooms were renovated in 2017. New lockers, furniture and carpeting, and the installation of an energy-efficient ventilation system and a raised ceiling, helped modernize the space.

Roofing

The new roof features a cable truss system. It includes a hard, exterior material on the outside third and a translucent material on the inner two-thirds.

The design and materials have eliminated the air-supported roof system from the original structure. The fixed roof has a 40-year lifespan, allows more natural light and is more resistant to Central New York weather.

Versatile Venue

The Dome serves as SU's home for football, men's and women's basketball and men's and women's lacrosse. Syracuse has also hosted soccer and softball games and volleyball matches there.

The facility has housed NCAA and conference championships in basketball, lacrosse and track and field; regional and state scholastic competitions in football, soccer and field hockey; NBA preseason games; and an AHL hockey game. Commencement and many academic convocations have been held in the Dome.

Video Boards

A new center-hung video and scoreboard was installed in 2020 as part of the roof replacement project. The scoreboard is 7,022 square feet, making it the second-largest indoor center-hung system in the United States. It's the third-largest indoor center-hung system in North America.

The Dome's Daktronics, Inc. scoreboard and video systems were updated in 2020. The two main video boards measure 21 feet high by 40 feet wide.

NCAA ATTENDANCE RANKINGS

Syracuse hosted the largest on-campus crowd of the college basketball campaign for 40 consecutive seasons. The streak ended in 2020-21 because of the pandemic, but started again in 2021-22 when 31,803 were on hand for a matchup with Duke.

NCAA Attendance Rankings

Syracuse has led the NCAA in home attendance average 17 times -- most recently in 2021-22. The program has earned the runner-up spot on 20 occasions.

SU's faithful put together a remarkable streak of 11 consecutive national attendance championships, from 1983-84 through 1994-95. Syracuse averaged more than 29,000 in 1989-90 and 1990-91. SU has not finished below dudrg since the Dome opened.
